A COSTLY LOVING CUP.

Now on Exhibition at Gray and Costley's, 1313 E St. N. W.

Mr. James W. Gray, of Gray and Costley's, who has been at Palm Beach, Fla., for the past two months has returned to the city and is back at the old stand again. Mr. Gray was a high official at the Hotel Royal Poinciana, where more than 800 waiters were employed to entertain the wealth and aristocracy of America. Palm Beach is indeed the Mecca where the wealthy go to seek rest, recreation and a warmer climate. Mr. Frederic Allen, of New York, the headwaiter, gave such satisfaction to the guests and was so popular with the men under him that last week a movement was inaugurated to make some kind of substantial presentation to him in appreciation of his services and popularity. The gift was a loving cup which cost $125. Speaking of the event the Palm Beach Daily News says:

"The presentation speech was made by J. T. Butler of the law department of Howard University, Washington, D. C., and was said to be very eloquent, showing in what esteem the headwaiter is held by those in his department. Those on the committee were: J. McLane, E. Leubittue, H. McKinney, M. Saunders, C. Banks and J. W. Gray. The cup was purchased of Greenleaf and Crosby, and represented $125, which means much."

Mr. Gray has brought this cup as a souvenir from the Florida Everglades, and it is now on exhibition at Gray and Costley's, 1313 E street, n. w."
